Warren Rustand

Warren is one of the foremost authorities on Leadership.

Early in Warren's career he entered the prestigious "Whitehouse Fellowship" competition, placing 2nd out of over 15,000 applicants. As such Warren joined the staff of Vice-President Gerald Ford on the day he was sworn in. In August of 1974 when the Vice-President became President, Warren was asked to serve as Appointments Secretary and Cabinet Secretary to the President.

Warren is the former CEO of 10 Public & Private Corporations including Providence Service Corp. (a $2.1B social services & healthcare co.) TLC Vision (the world's largest Eye Surgery co.) and he was instrumental in bringing Massey Ferguson from bankruptcy to a billion dollar valuation in the 80's, emerging as Verity Corp.

He has served as a member of the Board of Directors for over 50 public, private & not-for-profit organizations including Global Chairman of the World Presidents Organization, a group of 10,000 CEO's in 100 countries. Warren is the Co-Founder and Dean of Faculty at the Entrepreneur Organization's Leadership Academy in Washington DC.

Warren lives in Tucson, Arizona with his wife Carson. He has 7 children and at last count 18 grandchildren. Recognized as All-American in Basketball at University of Arizona where he received his undergraduate and graduate degrees, he has received "The Visionary Leadership Award", the "Distinguished Citizen Award", election to the "Sports Hall of Fame", the "Robshaw Award", "Whitehouse Fellow", and in 2015 Warren was named Tucson's "Father of the Year".
